US–Iran Conflict Briefing

2026-10-30 · Morning edition · issued 07:00 CDT

Houthis claim attacks on Ras Tanura, Rabigh and Abqaiq; damage unconfirmed

- Yemen's Iran-aligned Houthis said on Thursday, October 29, 2026 that they had attacked several sites in Saudi Arabia, including its largest oil refinery Ras Tanura, the Rabigh refinery and an Aramco facility in Abqaiq, Reuters reported on October 30, 2026. — Reuters
- The Associated Press reported that the Houthis announced attacks on Aramco oil facilities in Saudi Arabia, corroborating that the claim was made; no vetted outlet has confirmed damage at Ras Tanura, Rabigh or Abqaiq. — Associated Press
- A Saudi-led coalition said it had intercepted a cruise missile launched by the Houthis towards Saudi Arabia's western region, Reuters reported on October 30, 2026. — Reuters

IRGC says three tankers hit mines south of Hormuz; no independent confirmation

- Iran's Revolutionary Guards said three tankers hit sea mines, exploded and caught fire while attempting to use an unauthorised route south of the Strait of Hormuz, Reuters reported on October 30, 2026; no independent vetted source has confirmed tanker damage. — Reuters
- ExxonMobil and Chevron have cancelled plans for their executives to travel to the United Arab Emirates' biggest oil show next week amid security concerns in the region, two sources familiar with the developments told Reuters on October 30, 2026. — Reuters

Coalition says drone intercepted over Mecca region; Houthis deny any attack that day

- The Saudi-led coalition said it had intercepted and destroyed a drone launched by Yemen's Houthis over the Mecca region on Friday, October 30, 2026, Reuters reported. — Reuters
- Houthi military spokesperson Yahya Saree denied on Friday, October 30, 2026 that the group had launched any attack towards Saudi Arabia that day, dismissing the Saudi-led coalition's Mecca-region drone account as false and saying Houthi operations target Saudi oil facilities and military bases, Reuters reported. — Reuters

Trump and Xi meet in Busan; no Iran or Hormuz outcome reported

- President Donald Trump and Chinese President Xi Jinping met on October 30, 2026 in Busan, South Korea, with Reuters reporting the talks focused on trade, fentanyl, soybeans and rare earths. — Reuters
- No vetted outlet reported an Iran or Strait of Hormuz outcome from the Trump-Xi summit on October 30, 2026; the Associated Press coverage of the summit centred on a trade truce. — Associated Press

Markets

- Brent crude was at $113.51 a barrel on October 30, 2026. — Reuters
- West Texas Intermediate crude was at $104.11 a barrel on October 30, 2026. — Reuters

- The U.S. 10-year Treasury yield was 4.99% on October 29, 2026. — Reuters

---

Sources: Reuters · Associated Press · Reuters · Reuters · Associated Press · Reuters

Compiled from X posts and traditional news outlets. Verify before acting on any single report.